

LAYMAN MEETING ASSUMES SHAPE

Plan for Missionary Convention for Salt Lake City Takes Definite Form.

IMPORTANT MEETING
HELD AT Y. M. C. A.

Church Delegates Not Authorized to Speak, and Another Meeting Is Needed.

At a meeting held Sunday afternoon in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association, representatives of the evangelistic churches of the city it was decided to accept the terms proposed for the holding of a layman's missionary convention in Salt Lake early in the spring. The date has not yet been definitely decided upon, but the tentative time is fixed for March 1 and 10. It may be, however, that the convention will be held as late as April.

The question uppermost in the discussion at Sunday afternoon's meeting was the financial side of the convention. The report of the finance committee expressed the belief that a sufficient sum of money could easily be raised for the purposes of the convention. It was suggested that the total would be only $1000 or 1500. Three hundred or four hundred dollars of this sum would be for the payment of speakers and the remainder would be used for the payment of the secretary, the issuance of literature and other incidental expenses.

Another Meeting Necessary.
The suggestion was then made that the amount needed might be raised by popular subscription—a dollar registration system was one of the plans. A few of the churches have already made arrangements for raising their share of expenses, notably the Phillips Congregational. In the discussion it developed that it might be better if the movement were given a more churchly aspect, and following out this idea, another meeting is called for 3:30 o'clock next Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist church.

Owing to the fact that only a few of the delegates representing the churches came with authority to speak for the churches or to make pledges for the church organizations, it was deemed the wiser course that another meeting be held, as stated, when all the representatives will bring with them the power to assume responsibility. The Rev. Ernest A. Hall, western field secretary of the Presbyterian church, was present. He explained the aims and purposes of the layman's movement. He said the movement is interdenominational and its ultimate object is to evangelize the entire world. The movement itself does not send out missionaries, but merely stimulates interest in church work, particularly among the men, so that the work may be extended through the regular channels of the various churches.

Many Addresses.
It is expected that at least a dozen of the most prominent churches in the country—both laymen and ministers—will deliver addresses at the convention. The estimated number of those who will attend is not less than a thousand. The evangelistic churches look forward to the occasion with great interest and enthusiasm, as was clearly manifested by the discussion at Sunday's meeting.
